PROBABLE CAUSE

BEFORE ME THIS DATE PERSONALLY APPEARED, OFC. C. STOGNER #1005, WHO BEING FIRST DULY SWORN DEPOSES AND SAYS THAT ON THE 2ND DAY OF JUNE, 2019 AT 12400 PINES BLVD AND 12085 PINES BLVD, THE ABOVE NAMED DEFENDANT COMMITTED THE ABOVE OFFENSES CHARGED AND THE FACTS SHOWING PROBABLE CAUSE TO BELIEVE THE SAME ARE AS FOLLOWS:

Report Date / Time 06/03/2019 12:32 AM	Agency Case/Offense Number PPPD19OFF033008	OCA / Agency ID
OBTs Number Offender Based Transaction System	Jail Booking Number	Other Number PPPD19CAD033008

The suspect was driving northbound on Flamingo Rd. approaching Pines Blvd. Victim 1, [REDACTED] was stopped in traffic also facing northbound. The suspect positioned his vehicle behind victim 1 and tapped victim 1's rear bumper with his front bumper. The suspect struck victim 1's bumper two more times while victim 1 held his foot on the brake. The suspect then pressed his accelerator enough that the tires on his car began to spin, making an audible squeel. Victim 1 saw that there was a handicap placard hanging from the rear view mirror of the suspect vehicle and thought they may be having a medical episode. Victim 1 exited his vehicle and began to call back to the suspect vehicle when he saw the suspect hold up a large black handgun with a long barrel (possibly a revolver) with his right hand. The suspect pointed it directly at victim 1 through the windshield and victim 1 stated he was in fear for his life. He quickly reentered his vehicle and drove away. The suspect vehicle then drove past him.

The suspect drove into the parking lot of the movie theater located at 12085 Pines Blvd. he positioned his vehicle perpendicular to victim 2 [REDACTED] and victim 3's [REDACTED] vehicles. Standing between the two vehicles, victims 2 and 3 believed the suspect to want one of their parking spots. They indicated to him that they would be leaving soon and began to enter their respective vehicles. As victim 2 began to enter his vehicle he noticed that the suspect's passenger window was opening. Thinking the suspect wanted to talk to him, he walked towards the window and saw the suspect smiling and almost "laughing" while holding a black revolver in his right hand. In fear for his life, he yelled to his girlfriend (victim 3) something to the effect of, "He has a gun!". At the same time victim 2 was walking to the suspect vehicle, victim 3 was looking in to the suspect vehicle. Victim 3 observed the suspect raise the firearm as well, describing it as a black revolver, and quickly finished getting in to her vehicle and closed the door. Both victim 2 and 3 then called 911. With both victim vehicles trapped by the suspect vehicle, the victim's were trying to determine their next move. Victim 2 looked up over his left shoulder, placing his face in the general area between the B pillar and his driver seat headrest. He saw the suspect still there and as he ducked again the suspect fired a shot into victim 2's vehicle. The round entered the vehicle thru the back window, went thru the top of the back seat, thru the upper area of the front seat (just below the headrest), deflected off a metal bar within the seat and fragmented into pieces. A piece of the round was discovered still in the seat, a piece was lodged inbetween the dash board and windshiled and a portion of the round exited through the front windshield. The round's trajectory narrowly missed victim 2 by inches. Victim 2 then heard the sound of tires running over glass and looked up again, observing he suspect vehicle as it began to drive away. Victims 2 and 3 backed their vehicles from their respective parking spots and began to flee the area. The suspect made a u-turn and began to follow victim 3 as she exited the parking lot and turned on to NW 4 Ave. Victim 3 then traveled west until Flamingo where she turned north bound.

While the interaction with victim 2 and 3 occurred, victim 1 flagged down an off duty officer from Miami Shores PD at approximately 300 N Flamingo Rd and was explaining the incident to them. As they discussed the incident, Victim 3 and the suspect drove west bound on NW 4 Ave the turned northbound on Flamingo. Victim 1 said "That's him! That's the guy!".

Victim 3 continued northbound and was initially unsure if the suspect was indeed following her but she altered her speed and lanes several times with the suspect vehicle mimicking her actions. The suspect continued following victim 3 until both vehicles were forced to stop in the west bound turn lanes at Sheridan St. The incident from that point resulted in actions that lead to BSO assuming that portion of the investigation (see BSO case 19-06-02-00000236).

All three victims advised that they are willing to prosecute and provided sworn taped statements in reference to incident.
